

Unequal Democracies Seminar Spring 2022

Thursdays, 14:15-16:00

Hybrid Format: Room M3393 and <https://unige.zoom.us/j/61419937057>

March 3rd, 2022:

"From Fairness evaluation to preferences and vote: An Analysis of individuals' demand for redistribution in 14 countries."

Davy-Kim Lascombes (University of Geneva)

Discussants: Jan Rosset and Mariana Alvarado

March 17th, 2022

"Appealing to the local voter: Place-based campaigning and the supply-side of the urban-rural divide."

Dominik Schraff (Aalborg University)

March 24th, 2022:

"Explaining immigrant political (un)representation in Western Europe: integration policies, electoral institutions and economic context."

Anna-Lena Nadler (University of Geneva)

Discussants: Nathalie Giger and Ari Ray

April 28th, 2022:

"Recognizing Indigenous Citizens: The Effects of Prior Consultations in Peru."

Mariana Alvarado (New York University and University of Geneva)

Discussant: Matias López

May 5th, 2022:

"The Transformation of British Welfare Policy: Politics, Discourse and Public Opinion."

Tom O'Grady (University College London)

May 19th, 2022:

"Experimental evidence on preferences for taxing the rich in the knowledge economy."

Julian Limberg (King's College London)